Think globally, act locally

The phrase of the caption for today's column was first used in the context of environmental challenges compelling attention of that section in society which is concerned about conditions in future affecting human populations and all other life forms across the planet. Long before governments stepped into the environment scene by enforcing environment-related laws, citizens are known to have taken the necessary initiatives to protect habitats hosting living organisms, including plants. Although change in lifestyle of both individuals and communities is imperative to match the changes in living conditions, reluctance to change on the part of human populations is as clear as daylight. It is not prudent to wait for global legislation or prescriptions for global action, the best course of action is to drive change by every individual. Even Mysureans need not wait for legislation by the State government or the Union Government to chalk out local action for their own benefit.

Ironically enough, voices are currently heard from every quarter across the country like never before calling for protecting the three resources of air, water and soil by adhering to clean practices. While water bodies have been polluted or made to disappear, air has been made unfit for breathing safely and soil rendered infertile on an alarming scale.

While action for protecting ambient air quality, particularly in urban spaces with population density much beyond optimum levels and saving soil fertility gone awry by excessive use of chemical fertilisers, may have to happen through legislation at different levels of government, sensible use of water lies very much within the ambit of individual citizens. That realisation has not dawned on most people who are beneficiaries of urban water supply facilities such as in Mysuru, Bengaluru and other cities across the country. Figures have been worked out to portray the overall water scenario in the country, comprising a) availability, b) demand, c) per capita use, d) share to meet different purposes and last as well as the most important e) wasting habits. These figures are to raise level of awareness in people at large about the care that every individual must bestow on water if the info is displayed prominently in public places instead of the unedifying flex boards showing the images of self-appointed leaders of people, a common sight in Mysuru.

The fact that about 75 per cent of earth's surface is covered by water may have led to a feeling that it is there for grabs in abundance. But, all that is salt water (35 parts per thousand) prompting the mariner in S.T. Coleridge's (1772-1834) poem to express dismay saying "Water, water, every where but not a drop to drink." Assuming that ground water is plentiful has resulted in its indiscriminate tapping. Only 2.5 per cent of all water on earth being fit for use, it is incumbent upon every individual to act locally, whether thinking globally or not thinking at all.

WHEN FLAT FOR FEE IS NOT SO FINE: Some cash-strapped real estate players stuck in legal imbroglio have found a use for their unsold inventories. Over the last couple of years, several lawyers representing real estate clients were offered flats in lieu of fees. A Supreme Court advocate, who had entered one such flat-for-fee arrangement, now laments that he is stuck with two flats and no buyers for them in a dull real estate market. — In Business Standard.

Will you accept this challenge ?

Kanazawa: If you're really short on cash and haven't eaten anything in about a week, you may want to head over to Gold Curry, a restaurant in Japan's Ishikawa Prefecture, where you can earn up to $900, if you can finish one of their giant dishes in the allotted time.

They are offering a grand prize of $900 to any person that can eat over 20 pounds of rice and curry in just one hour, which I for one don't think is humanly possible without rupturing your stomach.

The good news is that you don't have to go straight for this impossible challenge. The challenge will start from initial stage from 2, 4, 6 and 8-kilo rice plate to finish it in 30 minutes. Once you've completed these lesser challenges and trained your stomach to deal with huge quantities of food, you're ready to go for the $900 grand prize.

Flashing LED Eyelashes

Stockholm: Swedish Arduino designer Tien Pham has been getting a lot of attention lately for an unusual tech-inspired beauty product — interactive LED eyelashes that stick to your eyelids with regular eyelash glue. Called F. Lashes, these eye-catching accessories come in pink, red, blue, yellow and green, and feature different lighting modes. When you move your body, and sparkle, with the LEDs lighting up individually to create a sparkle effect.

Pham unveiled F. Lashes at the recent Maker Faire, in the Bay Area, where they earned the designer the Editor's Choice award. F.Lashes attach to your eyes with eyelash glue, and are connected to a tiny battery at the back of the user's head, with barely visible wires. A switch on the battery lets you turn the lashes on/off, and change the lighting effects. Pham says he often forgets he has them on, and can only see the light they emit if he cups his hand above them. You might see some light in dark environments. Battery life is around 4 hours.

Self-discipline tips for longevity !

Sir,

In one of his recent articles titled "Self-Discipline," N.K.A.Ballal has highlighted the virtues of observing self-discipline. It is also a fact that those who lead disciplined lives tend to live longer. Examples of Sir M. Visvesvaraya, Mysore Vasudevacharya and John D. Rockefeller can be quoted in this connection.

John D. Rockefeller was the richest man in the United States at the height of his active career and he lived up to age 98. He reached a great age partly because he devoted the same attention to organising the resources of his body that he once gave to organising the oil industry. After he was 34, he made it a practice to take a nap of an hour or two after luncheon and not even the President of the United States could get John D. Rockefeller on the phone while he was having his snooze!

Some useful tips which have a bearing on longevity are listed below:

1. Do volunteer work after retirement instead of putting a stop to working abruptly.

2. Move around. Exercise is the only real fountain of youth that exists. Simply walk around the neighbourhood for 30 minutes a day.

3. Get at least six hours of sleep each night. Sleep is one of the most important functions that our body uses to regulate and heal cells. Those who reach the century make sleep a priority.

4. Be less neurotic. Find better ways to manage when you are stressed. Yoga, exercise, meditation or just deep breathing for a few minutes are all good.

5. Be a creature of habit. Centenarians tend to live by strict routines, eating the same kind of diet and doing the same kind of activities their whole lives. Going to bed and waking up at the same time each day is another good habit to keep your body in steady equilibrium that can easily be disrupted as you get on in years.

6. Stay connected. Having regular social contacts with friends and loved ones is key to avoiding depression, which can lead to premature death.

Have faith in God, learn to sleep well and love good music. And health and happiness will be yours.

JD(S) to be strengthened under G.T. Devegowda's leadership in Mysuru region: H.D. Kumaraswamy

Mysuru, June 2- The rift in JD(S) arising out of perceived efforts to field A.H. Vishwanath or the party leader H.D. Revanna's son Prajwal from Hunsur Assembly constituency in the 2018 Assembly polls seems to have been resolved.

A closed door meeting was held between Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda (GTD) and the party State Unit President H.D. Kumaraswamy at the former's residence at Vijayanagar here yesterday to iron out differences.

Speculation of the rift within the JD(S) surfaced following conjectures that either Prajwal or senior Congress leader A.H. Vishwanath, who has been sidelined in the party, were to be fielded from Hunsur. This incensed G.T. Devegowda, who was keen to field his son Harish Gowda from there.

Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda and party State unit President H.D. Kumaraswamy seen at the former's residence in Vijayanagar here yesterday. GTD's wife Lalitha, MP C.S. Puttaraju and others are also seen.

At a district level meeting of the party held a few weeks ago, there was a fracas between the supporters of GTD and Kumaraswamy.

Soon after yesterday's meeting, Kumaraswamy who spoke to press persons said that there was no difference of opinion among the party leaders in the district. The misunderstanding arriving out of the behaviour of a few party workers has been resolved, he said and added that the contribution of GTD and his family to the party is immense and it will continue in the future as well.

Maintaining that party MLAs G.T. Devegowda, S.R. Mahesh and Chikkamadu were together, Kumaraswamy said the three leaders will strive for strengthening the party organisation.

Pointing out that the JD(S) was aiming to win 9 out of the 11 Assembly segments in the district, he said that he was a well wisher of GTD's son Harish Gowda.

Kumaraswamy denied that there was any confusion over the party's choice of candidate from Hunsur. MLA G.T. Devegowda said that he was ready for any sacrifice for the sake of the party. Maintaining that his family was committed to work under the leadership of Kumaraswamy, he said "our objective is to ensure that Kumaraswamy becomes the Chief Minister again".

Legislative Council Deputy Chairman Marithibbegowda, MLCs K.T. Srikantegowda and Appaji Gowda, Mandya MP C.S. Puttaraju, G.T. Devegowda's wife Lalitha, son Harish Gowda and others were present.

Shobha, Panda to be UK poll observers

Mysuru, June 2 (MTY&BCT)- Udupi-Chikkamagaluru Member of Parliament Shobha Karandlaje has been appointed as an official parliamentary observer for the UK Parliamentary elections scheduled to be held on June 8 where each of the 650 parliamentary constituencies will elect one Member of Parliament (MP) to the House of Commons, the Lower House of Parliament.

Under UK Election Assignment Mission, Lok Sabha Speaker Sumitra Mahajan selected the name of Shobha Karandlaje and Baijayant 'Jay' Panda, an MP

Shobha

from Odisha as official election observers in the UK. Shobha and Panda will work as observers from June 3 to 10.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, she said that she has been chosen as an independent observer and this is her first such assignment on a foreign soil. "Though the nature of my assignment is not clear, we will be trained before being put on duty. Also, I don't know much about the UK Parliamentary election process which I have studied in textbooks," she said.

She said that she would be flying to UK tomorrow. "I was quite surprised when I received the letter asking me if I were up for the assignment. I even reached out to the Embassy asking them what this entailed.

All I have gathered is that I will be a neutral observer," she said. "I will be tasked to collect information about the influence that is wielded by political parties on voters and whether they are adopting any unfair means to win the elections," she added.

India is sending its MPs following a request by the UK Commonwealth Parliamentary Association (CPA).

Earlier too India had sent its members to act as observers in UK elections. Observers will be expected to undergo a two-day training programme before being deployed on election duty.

The CPA has sought for only those members who are physically fit and willing to work for long hours on the election day.

Corporators to approach CM for phone, car facilities

Mysuru, June 2 (SBD&NNN)- Taking umbrage at the sudden withdrawal of free use of Closed User Group (CUG) mobile phones, the Corporators demanded that the facilities be reinstated at the earliest by the government.

This demand was made at the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Council meeting held here on May 30 by the Corporators. After a hour-long discussion on the subject, Mayor M.J. Ravikumar decided to write to Chief Minister Siddharamaiah requesting him to provide basic facilities including car and CUG to the elected members and officials.

There was heated debate in the House following the letter written by MCC's Town Planning Development Standing Committee Chairman Nandeesh Preetham to the government asking it to withdraw the car facility given to him.

Former Mayor Ayub Khan said that under JnNURM scheme, 5 per cent grant was kept aside for administrative expenses. He demanded to know how the grant was being utilised.

Nearly 25 per cent of the officials using the CUG facility have run up a bill of between Rs. 15,000 and Rs. 20,000 every month. But only the phone bills of Corporators have been made public, thus insulting them, he charged.

Asked about this, MCC's Superintending Engineer Suresh Babu could not give a convincing answer. Corporator P. Devaraju took him to task asking him, did he not know that there was no provision to provide mobile facility, since the past nine years.

Talking about Nandeesh Preetham's letter seeking withdrawal of car facility, Ayub Khan said that just because Preetham came from an affluent background and could afford to function without a car facility, he should have thought of other Corporators who do not enjoy the same status as they come from middle class background.

There is no provision to provide separate office and peons, will this also be banned, he asked. At this time, K.T. Cheluvegowda stood up and said that there is no provision to provide coffee during the meetings. Will it also be withdrawn? he asked.

A Standing Committee Chairman is getting free publicity by his charitable act of writing to the government to withdraw the car facility, alleged J.S. Jagadish, Prashant Gowda and K.V. Mallesh. Reacting to this charge, Nandeesh Preetham said that since he was being targeted he had to reply to the allegations.

At this time, Suhail Baig, Devaraj, Sunil and others rushed towards the well of the House and vociferously expressed their opposition. Meanwhile, Nandeesh Preetham finished reading the letter.

The Mayor threatened to remove the members from the House for causing disruption. Later, he promised to write to the Chief Minister and Urban Development Minister to review the stand. Thus, the commotion in the Council came to an end.

Generic Drugs... the Bottom-line

Even as I started writing my first article on the debate between branded versus generic drugs I had said that by embarking on this subject I was in danger of opening a Pandora's Box. The deluge of responses I am getting has proved me right. While my mailbox and inbox are full of them, two letters have made it to the 'Reader's Voice' box of SOM and some others may be on the way! I feel that Dr. Anand, the writer of one of the letters, needs a slightly more detailed introduction to readers. I consider this necessary because I want to highlight some principles of goodwill and co-operation that should exist between doctors. But I wonder why he has shied away from writing under his full name this time. Was it to avoid hurting my feelings?

Let me make it clear that as a writer I welcome criticism by any reader because writing is supposed to generate discussion and debate. Lt. Col. Dr. Y. N. I. Anand is my good friend and we regularly meet and discuss issues of common interest. Unlike most city-based doctors we both have been running out-reach clinics about seventy kilometres away from Mysuru in Chamarajanagar District which cater to the needs of a large number of rural patients who place a great deal of faith in us. These patients in a way can be called underprivileged because they simply cannot afford to travel all the way to Mysuru to see us and buy their medicines too. They can only do one of the two things. For them a trip to Mysuru entails forgoing a day's wages and paying bus and autorickshaw fare and also paying money to fend for themselves by eating at hotels here. If they spend what little money they have to do this, they have to go back empty-handed without buying the medicines we prescribe for them and their families. That is why Dr. Anand and I prefer to see them in their own places.

While he goes to his out-reach clinic on Wednesdays I go to mine on Tuesdays. Because our clinics are located within the proverbial stone's throw from each other, we often end up seeing the same patients on many occasions. But unlike some other doctors who dislike this kind of cross-consultation by their patients, from whom they expect unflinching loyalty, we actually encourage it. We have an unwritten understanding that we should be free to revise each other's diagnosis and also alter each other's prescriptions whenever necessary in the interest of providing the best care for our patients.

The outstanding difference in the way we practice is that while I prescribe branded medicines of reasonable cost for all my patients which they have to buy from chemists, Dr. Anand himself dispenses very low cost generic medicines for all his patients. But because he selects these from manufacturers of good standing as carefully as he selects jewellery for his wife, his generic medicines do much good to his patients despite lacking a branded lineage!

I simply do not have the time and patience to do this. Very often many of my patients very cleverly take a prescription from me and pick up the equivalent combinations from his pharmacy! But I just do not mind their doing this as I am sure that thanks to my friend's eagle eye they and their families are safe. So the bottom-line here is that when you make sure that the generic drugs dispensed to your patients are from a good and dependable manufacturer you are doing them a lot of good.

But a consultant like me who does not do his or her own dispensing cannot ensure the quality of what patients get by way of generic drugs from the vast ocean of their availability. Like our Prime Minister, Dr. Anand too strongly advocates the universal use of generic drugs. But who can stand at every drug shop and monitor what each one dispenses? The only way to ensure quality in this field is to completely wipe out all the not-so-upright manufacturers who are having a field day in our country now. In fact such units greatly out-number the good players but in our corruption-riddled bureaucracy this is an impossible task.

Actually, Gujarat, the home State of our Prime Minister himself has the largest number of drug manufacturing units in our country. Among these are the small ones, the big ones, the good ones, the bad ones and the worst ones too!

Over the past few months more than a dozen of my own patients have nearly killed themselves with soaring blood sugar and blood pressure levels after consuming some very low quality medicines from the so-called generic outlets. After they had first-hand near-death experience of what a combination of cost-cutting and poor quality can do, they and their relatives are much wizened now and are back on branded drugs.

That is why I still defend my use of branded drugs. Our Prime Minister simply cannot phase out all branded drugs even if he is re-elected many times. It needs co-operation at an international level. Just see the progress he has made in unearthing ill-gotten Indian wealth stashed abroad, let alone in bringing it back into the country for public good. It was perhaps the item in his election manifesto that fetched him and his party the maximum votes but sadly it had to be tactfully pushed under the carpet of time.

Corruption may be rampant in our country but it is a universal phenomenon. The rest of the world may not have small scale corruption like a Traffic Policeman pocketing a paltry bribe from a helmet-less rider and letting him drive away. But it exists in mighty proportions even in the biggest and best governed countries. We simply do not realise the might of the international pharma lobby. It is as mighty and as powerful as the armaments manufacturers who call all the shots. These giants control mighty empires with international tentacles. Unknown to most of us, they fund Presidential elections and then manipulate the governments of mighty countries to their advantage. They are the ones who tell our governments during the international trade summits what guns we should buy, what cars we should drive, what food we should eat and also what medicines we should take when we fall sick!

POINT BLANK

Days of Fake News

By K.B. Ganapathy
Editor-in-Chief

Yesterday, I had written in my Abracadabra column about the tendentious manner a majority of the leading press and TV carry news and events. I had written, "the news media both electronic and print are seen being influenced by these ideologues and anarchists, at least some of them, for whatever reason. Some reasons were exposed when the Radia Tapes Scam made news." What I was trying to underline was that ever since Modi came to power there was a strange phenomenon of fake news floating all over the country, specially in the English media.

When Donald Trump relentlessly accused the American mainline media, both TV and Print, of fake news he was not taken seriously but the subsequent events had proved him right. Now, we read and hear about an outrage created by leftist media following a Beef Festival at IIT (Madras), held on May 29. The news published in most of the media about this fest and the subsequent events, I learn now is fake. The original news accused the Right-Wing students attacking the Left-Wing students described as intellectuals, when the Beef-Fest was held at the IIT (Madras). The fake news industry had demonised the Right-Wing students of bashing up one R. Sooraj, the blue-eyed victim of the Left intelligentsia after the Beef-Fest was over.

According to Bhamy V. Shenoy, the Founder-Member of Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP), the truthful news in contrast to the fake news was published in Swarajya. After reading the news related to this incident in Swarajya, Bhamy Shenoy unsuccessfully tried to speak to the Dean of Students IIT (Madras) to find out why the college management did not issue a press note giving the true picture thereby demolishing the fake news.

Bhamy Shenoy writes to me saying that it looked like IIT (Madras) management did not want to give one more opportunity to the trouble-makers to debate their case in media and malign the Modi government. The disciplined students have joined IIT (Madras) to pursue studies and not politics. No need to explain that this kind of behaviour surely pollutes the campus environment and the fake news industry is only adding fuel to fire.

According to the fake news, R. Sooraj was beaten up for taking part in the Beef-Fest. However, the Swarajya has a different story to tell — that what the large number of mainline newspapers and the TV channels have said about the incident was absolutely wrong.

There was no Right-Wing attack on the student for taking part in the Beef-Fest. However, the fake news factory had portrayed that there was a group attack on a research scholar R. Sooraj who was present at the beef party on Monday (May 29).

However, here is what is making rounds in the social media about what really happened. The IIT (Madras) canteen has a section serving vegetarian food. During the lunch hour on May 30, that is a day after the beef festival, a student from Bihar, Manish Kumar Singh, saw Sooraj, who had participated in the Beef- Festival, in the vegetarian food section of the canteen. Seeing Sooraj, Manish Kumar Singh by way of conversation asked the former what he was doing in the vegetarian section being a beef eater. This turned into a verbal spat between the two, leading to a brawl.

According to the social media posts, Sooraj told Manish that he would eat beef and even feed Manish with beef etc. etc. With the help of the two more students, Sooraj assaulted Manish who in self-defense pushed Sooraj who fell on a table and hurt his eyes. Both of them were rushed to the clinic and as for Manish, he was shifted to another hospital where he was to undergo surgery to his right hand.

Be that as it may, facts are sacred but comment is free. Here in this case the fact is that there was a fight between two students and not a group attack as reported in some section of the press and TV. This Manish Kumar Singh from Bihar is not a member of any Right-Wing group. He is simply a student come to study and not play politics.

District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, MP Pratap Simha, MUDA Chairman D. Dhruvakumar and MUDA Commissioner Dr. M. Mahesh are seen handing over the Ring Road documents to NHAI Executive Engineer T.R. Shivaram at Government Guest House here this morning as DC D. Randeep looks on.

Mysuru, June 2 (RK&DM)- PWD and District in-Charge Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa officially handed over the Ring Road maintenance to the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) by handing over the records to NHAI Executive Engineer T.R. Shivaram at the Government Guest House in Nazarbad this morning.

MP Pratap Simha, DC D. Randeep, MUDA Chairman D. Dhruvakumar, MUDA Commissioner Dr. M. Mahesh, Superintending Engineer M. Shivakumar, Executive Engineer Raju, Assistant Executive Engineer D.K. Ravi and other officials were present.

The Ring Road, which links six highways touching the city, was upgraded at a total cost of Rs. 332.20 crore, with the Central Government funding Rs. 156.35 crore, State Government Rs. 40.76 crore and MUDA Rs. 135.08 crore.

The upgradation works which commenced on Feb. 15, 2008 after the Union Government sanctioned the project under JnNURM scheme was completed and CM Siddharamaiah had thrown open the upgraded Ring Road on Apr. 28, 2016.

The Ring Road is 41.535 km long. The MUDA, after finding it difficult to generate funds for the maintenance of the road, approached District Minister, who in turn appealed MP Pratap Simha to convince the Centre for NHAI take over. Pratap Simha took up the issue with the Centre and succeeded in getting the NHAI take over the maintenance of the Ring Road. NHAI will now maintain 37.22 km of the 41.535 km long Ring Road, barring the 4.315 km stretch from H.D. Kote Road Junction to Nanjangud Road Junction.

The Centre will release Rs. 177 crore for further development of the Ring Road. The Centre, which has also funded for promoting green cover all along the Road, will take up maintenance at an estimated annual cost of Rs. 60-70 crore.

Tanveer Sait takes MUDA officials to task

Primary and Secondary Education Minister Tanveer Sait, who represents NR constituency, arrived at the Guest House after the end of the programme, by which time Dr. Mahadevappa had returned to his official room.

Sait, who saw the MUDA Commissioner, the Superintending Engineer and other officials, took them to task for neglecting works in his constituency. Even as the officials were found gasping to answer to the queries of Sait, Dr. Mahadevappa, who ventured out of his room along with MUDA Chairman, pacified the upset Sait, saying that he would look into the matter, it is learnt.

Multi-level parking facility opposite Zoo soon: Minister

Mysuru, June 2- Very soon, the long-pending multi-level parking facility opposite the Sri Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens or the Mysuru Zoo will be a reality, said PWD and District In-charge Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa.

He was speaking to reporters after inspecting the Zoo this morning. The total land available for parking opposite the Zoo (where vehicles are now parked) is 3092 Sq.mts. The land has been leased out to the Zoo for parking by the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC).

It may be recalled here that Star of Mysore had on Friday, 26th May published an Abracadabra titled Parking Woes of our City – Animal world Outside Zoo by K.B. Ganapathy that highlighted the parking problems at the Zoo.

The Minister told reporters that 10 years back, a Detailed Project Report was prepared and then the cost was estimated at Rs. 30 crore that provided for parking to over 40 buses, 20 tempos, 250 cars and 500 two-wheelers at any given point of time.

"Very soon, I will hold a meeting with the Zoo and MCC authorities and decide as to who will bear the cost of constructing the parking facility. Whether it will be a joint venture of MCC and Zoo or it will be fully funded by the State Government," he said.

The parking facility will have visitor's plaza, ticket counters, toilets, cloak rooms, and a refreshment stall. This apart, a subway will be constructed to link the multi-level parking facility to the Zoo.

Prof. Coutinho's name for Mysore Varsity search panel

Prof. Countinho

Mysuru, June 2 (RK&NNN)- Amidst lot of opposition from the Syndicate members, former Vice Chancellor of Gulbarga University, Prof. V.B. Countinho, was nominated to the Search Committee, to select a new Vice Chancellor for University of Mysore.

This decision was take at the special Syndicate meeting of the University of Mysore, held here this morning at Crawford Hall. The meeting was chaired by acting Vice Chancellor Prof. Dayanand Mane, who himself took serious exception to the name of Prof. Coutinho along with Registrar Evaluation Prof. J.Somashekar and four other principals of various colleges.

However, the Syndicate members nominated by the government, held firm and Prof. Coutinho was finally selected, with six voting against and seven in his favour, it is learnt.

The University of Mysore Syndicate had earlier selected former UGC Chairman Prof. Hair Gautam as its nominee to the Search Committee to select a new Vice Chancellor to the University. However, Prof. Hari Gautam, due to health issues was absent at the selection panel meeting held in Bengaluru on May 12. Hence, it was decided to hold the meeting in Delhi on May 22. But, the Governor had taken exception to this meeting and directed that it should be held in Karnataka itself.

In the light of this, Prof. Hari Gautam's name was dropped and the special Syndicate meeting was held to name a new member. Prof. Coutinho's name was proposed in this meeting which has once again led to a controversy.

According to the Karnataka Universities Act, when the members for the Search Committee are proposed, they should not have anything to do with that University. In this background, Prof. Coutinho, is the State's Higher Education Council member and University Review Committee member too. These are directly related to the posts of the University. Hence, his name to the committee could create more problems, it is said.

'Save Kodagu' rally in Madikeri receives good response

Madikeri, June 2- Hundreds of environmentally concerned residents of Kodagu, supported by various organisations and voluntary organisations took out a massive "Save Kodagu, Save Cauvery" rally in Madikeri this morning opposing the indiscriminate development of Kodagu that is leading to irreparable damage of the pristine environment.

Holding banners, placards and signages, protestors marched along the main streets of Madikeri shouting slogans against the apathetic attitude of the State and Central Governments. They raised their voice against the projects including railway line, national highways and proposed dams.

The rally was taken out from Madikeri Fort it passed pass through General Thimmayya Statue and reached Cauvery Kalakshetra where a meeting was held. Speakers from various organizations addressed the agitators and later a memorandum was submitted to the Deputy Commissioner.

The agitation was spearheaded by Coorg Wildlife Society.

Addressing the protestors, President of Coorg Wildlife Society Colonel (Rtd.) C.P. Muthanna said that the purpose of the rally is to save River Cauvery from drying up due to destruction of its catchment area. "Kodagu is the principal catchment area of Cauvery and both the Centre and State Governments are hell-bent on destructing Kodagu in the name of development. Thousands of trees are being felled to favour the timber lobby and projects are being sanctioned for Kodagu that will benefit people outside the district," he alleged.

"At this rate, Cauvery will dry up soon and people are already facing water crisis. This agitation is not limited for today and if the governments do not bother, we will launch bigger protests," he said.

Spring 2017
Presented to
Krishna Raja Sagar Dam, KaWRD
In recognition of the excellence in quality of rehabilitation works and compliance with Statutory, Regulatory and Environment Requirements
TTL, World Bank
Project Director, DRIP

Mysuru, June 2 (RK&BCT)- The renovation works being undertaken at the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam has received the prestigious World Bank Award of Excellence in Rehabilitation Work(s) Civil – Spring 2017. The award has been given in recognition of the excellence in quality of rehabilitation works and compliance with statutory, regulatory and environment requirements.

The award has been constituted by Dam Rehabilitation and Improvement Project (DRIP) of the World Bank and the award citation bears the signature of Project Director, DRIP and Task Team Leader (TTL), who is a World Bank staffer who coordinates the activity of the project. The award was presented in New Delhi on May 30.

The renovation works began in July 2016 with an estimated cost of Rs. 36 crore and is scheduled to end in July 2018. According to project engineers, works will be completed three months before the deadline. World Bank is funding the project up to 90 percent and the remaining 10 percent is funded by the State Government.

The Central Water Commission (CWC) has approved the project and the dam restoration has been handed over to Ferro Concrete Construction (India) located at Bhagirathapur in Indore, Madhya Pradesh. The CWC has appointed Water Resource Development Organisation (WRDO) as a nodal agency to supervise and implement the project.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Executive Engineer of Cauvery Neeravari Nigama Limited K. Basavaraje Gowda said that as soon as the CWC approved the project, a detailed inspection of the 100-year-old dam was undertaken and holes on the structure were identified through 'Poly Ironite Ceramic Cementitious Pointing.'

Holes and cracks are being filled using Crystalline Technology through Fibre Short Crate. The process is being videographed for precision and the holes will be sealed through grating process.

He said that the sealing of holes and cracks would strengthen the dam which has not seen repairs since decades.

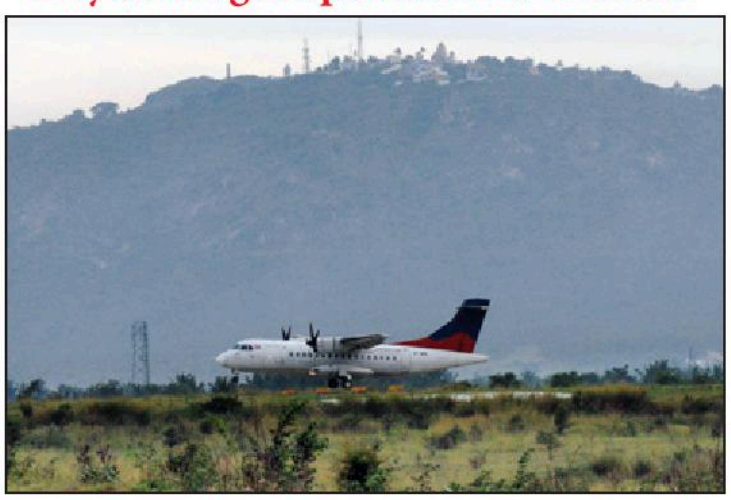
Other works that are being undertaken at the KRS dam include cavity filling, pointing, horizontal and vertical dam body grouting. Over 250 workers, technical experts and engineers are undertaking the works at the dam, he said and added that officials from World Bank, CWC and the WRDO conduct regular inspection on the progress of the works.

"We had a technical meeting in New Delhi on May 30 and the award was presented to Water Resource Department Engineer Prabhakar and Project Director Madhava," he said. In Karnataka, the State government has taken up works to restore 29 small and big dams and the works at KRS Dam has been receiving national awards since three years, he added.

The project is supervised by Cauvery Neeravari Nigama Limited Chief Engineer D. Manjunath, Superintending Engineer K.G. Vijay Kumar, Asst. Executive Engineer C. Vasudeva and Asst. Engineer Kishore Kumar.

Fresh lease of life to Mandakalli Airport

Flights to resume from September; Day and night operations to Chennai



Mysuru, June 2 (NNN)- The jinxed Mandakalli airport is again getting a fresh lease of life. With the introduction of flight operations from Mysuru to Chennai from September, under the Regional Connectivity Scheme, known as UDAN (Ude Desh Ka Aam Nagarik), there is new light at the end of the tunnel.

The stop-start affair has been going on and this is the fourth time that the effort is being made to give it a push. The operation was first introduced in March 2010. The defunct Kingfisher airlines had introduced the service but due to poor response, it discontinued the service in 2011. This was followed by Spice Jet and its flights began in January 2013 and ended in October 2014.

"Mysureans always make a hue and cry about air connectivity and when the flights are introduced they do not respond. Only when people in Mysuru fly in and out can the airport industry grow," said Manoj Kumar Singh, Director, Mandakalli Airport, speaking to Star of Mysore, here this morning.

"We are ready to operate the flights from today itself. The airport is maintained well, and it has all facilities. The government has also come forward with the new RCS scheme in which one can fly paying Rs. 2,500, which I feel is within the reach of aam admi. Now, all people of Mysuru including industrialists, tech majors like Infosys, Excel Soft, Wipro, should do, is respond to this offer," he said.

According to Singh, there will be two flights a day to Chennai, one in the day time and another during the night. The night flight timing has been finalised. Air Odisha will operate this flight which will land at 8.45 pm from Chennai and leave to Chennai at 9 pm. The morning flight timing has yet to be finalised. Turbo Megha Airways has shown interest to operate the morning flight, he added.

Asked about the demand for introducing flights to other major destinations like Delhi, Singh said, "The main problem we have is the refuelling. Since there is no refuelling facility, the aircraft has to carry double load of fuel and this adds to the cost. If there is a refuelling facility then the aircraft can land, refuel and fly out."

BPCL (Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited) has come forward to establish a fuel outlet. If this comes through then long haul flights from places like Delhi can also be accommodated, he said. "From the time I have come here, I have been running from pillar to post to see that the airport operations pick up. But if the response is very poor then what can the government do?" he asked.

On the length of the runway and the landing of bigger flights, he said, right now only Q-400 or Bombardier aircraft can land and these aircraft have a seating capacity of 80. But, if bigger aircraft like Boeings have to land, then, as per the norms, the runway must have a width of 150 metres and the Mandakalli runway is only 75 metres wide. A land measuring 18 guntas on either sides and an additional land of 10,300 sq.ft is required for expansion.

However, these are decisions that are not in the hands of the local authorities. But the new RCS, whose primary objective is to facilitate regional air connectivity, it will be there for at least three years by which time, the airport can be expanded and flight operators can upgrade their fleet, felt Singh.

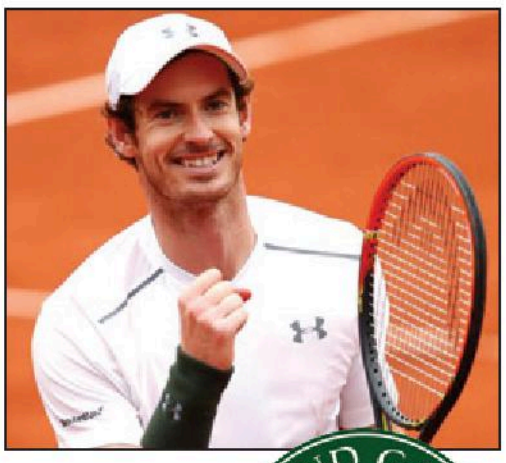
FRENCH OPEN 2017

Andy Murray scores over Martin Klizan



Paris, June 2- World number one Andy Murray's struggle, this season on clay, came back to plague him at the French Open yesterday as he ground out an unconvincing 6-7(3) 6-2 6-2 7-6(3) win against Slovakian power-hitter Martin Klizan.

Out-hit and more surprisingly often out-thought in the first set by a player he had described as unpredictable, the Scot conceded it on a tiebreaker.

Looking faster and keener, Murray pushed through the second set in 37 minutes and the third in one minute less. The Slovakian, ranked 50, then began to chance his arm and, as Murray's level dipped, raced to a 5-2 lead before, with yet another momentum shift, the Scot broke back and took the fourth set to a tiebreak, closing out the match with a scrambled volley.

Earlier, world number three Stan Wawrinka came out on top in his slug-fest with Ukraine's Alexandr Dolgopolov win 6-4 7-6(5) 7-5 yesterday and move into the French Open third round.

The 2015 French Open champion, who has yet to drop a set here, may have won in three sets but it was tougher than it looked with Dolgopolov, a former top-20 player giving him a run for his money.

In the women's section, ninth seed Agnieszka Radwanska quelled the challenge from qualifier Alison Van Uytvanck 6-7(3) 6-2 6-3 in the second round.

Champions Trophy 2017

Root's ton guides England to victory

London, June 2- Joe Root scored an unbeaten 133 as England chased 306 with eight wickets in hand to register an easy win in the opening game of the 2017 Champions Trophy.

He was ably supported by Alex Hales (95) and skipper Eoin Morgan (75 not out) as England showed why they are considered as one of the top contenders to win the title.

Winning the toss and electing to field first, England bowled well to restrict Bangladesh to 305, especially after losing their strike bowler Chris Woakes to a side strain. The flat wicket with short boundaries always meant a big total was on the cards.

Bangladesh, who started well, was disappointed that they could manage only 305. The visitors made a safe start with Tamim Iqbal and Soumya Sarkar (28) adding 56 runs for the opening wicket. Imrul Kayes (19) didn't score too many but the two senior pros, Tamim and Rahim then batted responsibly on a placid Oval track.

The stylish Tamim hit 12 boundaries and three sixes in his innings while Rahim struck eight boundaries in his 72-ball knock. Tamim started on a cautious note getting his first boundary off 21st ball that he faced but didn't look back when he settled.

Tamim scored a fluent century (128), and put up 166 run partnership with Mushfiqur Rahim. But Bangladesh lost both the settled batsman in back-to-back deliveries, with Liam Plunkett getting the wickets. Plunkett finished with 4 wickets.

Chasing the total, England didn't start well losing Jason Roy early. The opener's form might worry the English think-tank going ahead in tournament. But Root and Hales got together, and played some smart cricket. The second-wicket partnership was worth 159 for England. The required run-rate never jumped as both batsmen found the boundaries when required.

Morgan at the other end was finding the boundaries at will en route to his 33rd half century.

Hard Disk crash leads to delay in issuance of birth and death certificates by MCC

Mysuru, June 2 (MTY&DM)- The Hard Disk crash at the MCC's Birth/ Death Certificates Section has led to the delay in the issuance at birth / death certificates, thus severely inconveniencing the public.

Jagadeesha

The problem is even more serious as school admissions have began and parents are visiting the MCC Office everyday for getting birth certificates of their wards.

The Hard Disk, installed by a Delhi-based company crashed due to technical snag over a month ago and the problem has persisted since then. In the absence of Hard Disk the MCC authorities are issuing hand-written birth/death certificates in lieu of printed ones.

Speaking to SOM this morning, MCC Commissioner G. Jagadeesha said that the Computer Hard Disk at the section was installed by a Delhi-based company a few years ago. But the disk crashed due to a technical snag, about a month ago, following which the MCC has written to the Delhi-based company to replace it.

The new Hard Disk is expected to arrive in city in about three days and the computer system will be back on track in a week.

The MCC has been issuing the birth/ death certificates in writing, which is as valid as the printed ones and can be used wherever necessary.

Also, those who have already been issued the hand-written certificates, can seek printed ones, once the new hard disk is installed and the Computer System begins working, Jagadeesha said and added that the MCC was doing its best to avoid causing inconvenience to the people.
